Division of Economic Justice
Antitrust Bureau – New York City
Assistant Attorney General
Reference No. ANT_NYC_AAG_3637

Application Deadline is January 19, 2024

The Office of the New York State Attorney General is seeking an attorney to join its Antitrust Bureau in New York City as an Assistant Attorney General (AAG). The Antitrust Bureau’s mission is to enforce federal and state antitrust laws on behalf of New York and its citizens, and to promote and protect the competitive process and the New York economy.

The Antitrust Bureau is engaged in the full range of antitrust issues, including price-fixing, bid-rigging, horizontal and vertical restraints, monopolization, and mergers. The Antitrust Bureau works closely with other state antitrust enforcers on matters of regional or national impact, and with the United States Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

Duties:

- Developing and implementing strategy for an investigation;
- Drafting subpoenas and information requests to gather evidence;
- Interviewing potential witnesses and targets and taking testimony;
- Reviewing documentary and economic evidence and formulating potential legal theories;
- Drafting pleadings, motions, briefs, and other court documents;
- Arguing motions and participating in trials;
- Managing all aspects of electronic discovery;
- Working with economists and other expert witnesses; and
- Negotiating settlements where appropriate.
