Regional Offices Division
Utica Regional Office
Assistant Attorney General-In-Charge
Reference No. UTC_AAGIC_3739

Application Deadline is December 20, 2024

The Office of the New York State Attorney General (OAG) is seeking a dynamic litigator and experienced manager to lead the Utica Regional Office (RO) as the Assistant Attorney General-In-Charge (AAGIC). The RO represents the state, its agencies, and officers in a wide range of federal and state court litigation, as well as handles consumer, charities, and social and economic justice matters.

The AAGIC will report to the Chief Deputy Attorney General for Regional Offices and supervise approximately seven (7) attorneys along with the RO's support staff. The AAGIC will manage the RO's defensive and affirmative dockets and daily operations with an emphasis on the direct supervision of the region's defensive practice, comprised of hundreds of cases in Federal Court, State Supreme Court, and the Court of Claims. Other responsibilities include maintaining an active caseload; reviewing and assigning incoming litigation matters; drafting and/or editing pleadings, briefs, and other court submissions; making appearances in court; evaluating and making recommendations on representation and settlement issues; addressing personnel issues; assisting with recruitment matters; regularly providing advice, training, and support to the RO's attorneys and support staff; liaising with other OAG bureaus/regional offices, state agencies, and external stakeholders. The AAGIC will also coordinate and make presentations at external community events providing information on a wide variety of affirmative justice, consumer, and other topical issues.
