EDNY OPEN CIVIL AUSA POSITIONS

ACE Practice

The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York encourages diverse, talented, and dedicated attorneys to apply for an Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) position in the Office's Affirmative Civil Enforcement (ACE) Practice in the Brooklyn, New York office.

Through ACE, the Office obtains monetary and equitable relief on behalf of the United States in a range of practice areas, including consumer fraud and protection, drug diversion, financial fraud, and health care fraud. ACE involves investigations and litigation under a host of statutes such as the False Claims Act, FIRREA, Controlled Substances Act, Food Drug and Cosmetic Act, and the Fraud Injunction Statute. AUSAs handle these cases in all phases before the district court and on appeal.

Generalist Civil AUSA

The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York encourages diverse, talented, and dedicated attorneys to apply for the position of a generalist Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) in the Office's Civil Division in the Brooklyn, New York office.

The Civil Division defends the United States and its agencies and officers in lawsuits brought pursuant to various sovereign immunity waivers. These include actions for monetary and equitable relief and run the gamut from claims for damages to constitutional challenges. The Civil Division also conducts investigations and brings affirmative litigation on behalf of the United States under a wide variety of statutes. Generalist AUSAs carry both defensive and affirmative caseloads. AUSAs handle these cases in all phases before the district court and on appeal.
