

Bousquet Holstein has an exciting opportunity for a litigation associate with 3-6 years of experience to join a team of innovative, dedicated, and resourceful attorneys. Our litigation practice group offers ambitious individuals the opportunity to work on interesting and challenging cases within a supportive environment, with ample resources to build necessary litigation skills as well as client relationships.

The ideal candidate will:

Be admitted to the New York State bar or meet the requirements to waive in;

- Have experience handling litigation matters in one or more of the following areas of civil litigation: labor and employment disputes, including employment discrimination (either plaintiff or defense-side), wage and hour matters, and retaliation (including whistleblower) claims; business disputes; complex commercial litigation; construction law; and real estate disputes.
- Have experience preparing pleadings and assisting with or conducting discovery and motion practice;
- Have stellar analytic, written, and verbal communication skills;
- Have the ability and the drive to work independently, prioritize tasks, plan, organize and manage complex and successful projects; understand available resources, and develop timelines;
- Have intellectual curiosity and a willingness to find practical solutions to complex problems.

Prior law firm experience and/or a federal or NYS clerkship are a plus.

Salary range: $93K – $100K, with bonus potential tied to performance metrics
